

SPANISH TRANSATLANTIC ODYSSEY

15 DAYS ■ NOVEMBER 3, 2024

AAA invites you to indulge in this exciting transatlantic cruise at an amazing price! Board Royal Caribbeans Odyssey of the Seas in Rome for a captivating cruise to Spain and across the Atlantic! Visit beautiful ancient Mediterranean ports on Spain's southeastern coast such as Barcelona, Valencia and Malaga with many optional shore excursions available. There will also be an enthralling stop on the Island of Madeira in Portugal. Enjoy elevated dining experiences on board and prep your taste buds for a culinary journey as you set sail west. Please join us on this unforgettable, once-in-a-lifetime adventure!

From $1,000 per person, including port taxes

AAA.com/TravelAgent

AAA EXCLUSIVE HIGHLIGHTS

- $50 On Board Credit per stateroom
- Staterooms are on a guarantee, please contact your AAA Travel Advisor for availability.

SPANISH TRANSATLANTIC ODYSSEY ITINERARY

Day 1

Rome (Civitavecchia Port) Embarkation - Odyssey of the Seas

Today we will embark on the beautiful RCL Odyssey of the Seas for an exciting 15-day journey.

Day 2

Cruising

Explore a sea of onboard possibilities. Prep your taste buds for a culinary journey with flavors that travel the world – like hand-rolled sushi at Izumi, Far East fare with flair at Teppanyaki, and classic Italian favorites at the new Giovanni's™ Italian Kitchen & Wine Bar. Enjoy groundbreaking multimedia spectaculars at the all-immersive entertainment space, Two70®, rockin' live performances at the all-new Music Hall, and many more surprises!

Day 3

Barcelona, Spain

Take advantage of the many shore excursions available. Catalan architect Antoni Gaudí left his modernist handprint all over this city, while medieval treasures linger in historic Gothic Quarter squares. Get lost in the whimsical gardens of Park Güell or savor a chef-led cooking class. Browse art collections dedicated to Picasso and Miro— or ride a cable car to the top of Montjuïc Hill to take in the spectacular views along the way.

Day 4

Valencia, Spain

Visit the Gothic Valencia Cathedral and see the 15th-century renaissance paintings housed in its interior and walk around the Plaza de la Reina in the city's old town. Try a glass of horchata, a classic Valencia beverage made from almond milk with cinnamon and spices.

Day 5

Cartagena, Spain

Visit the 2,000-year-old Roman Theatre and attached museum housing an ancient altar to Jupiter and statue of Apollo. See the late 19th century modernist architecture of Cartagena's historic district and stroll down the blue-marble-tiled pedestrian-only Calle Mayor.

Day 6

Malaga, Spain

Scale the hilltop to dramatic La Alcazaba fortress, dating back to the 11th century that overlooks this ancient seaside city. Sun yourself on the idyllic beaches of Caleta and Malagueta and see the eccentric works of Pablo Picasso, the city's most famous native son, at the Picasso Museum.

Day 7

Cruising

Enjoy the many ship amenities today. Soak up the sun at the newly designed resort-style pool deck with plenty of shady casitas and hammocks, and the two-story Lime and Coconut® bar.

Take the time to enjoy a massage at the spa or take a dance class and learn the latest salsa, swing or ballroom moves.

Day 8

Madeira (Funchal), Portugal

Optional shore excursion includes trekking the levandas, the island's open canal system, and take in panoramic views of the mountains and the ocean. Dive into the deep blue sea to swim with fish and seals or walk along the harbor in Funchal, enjoying its unique 17th-century architecture.

Day 9-14

Cruising the Atlantic

There is plenty of time to enjoy all the onboard activities. When it comes to onboard entertainment, the Broadway style original productions shine the spotlight on awe-inspiring. Enjoy games shows, live bands and outdoor movie nights.

Day 15

Cape Liberty, New Jersey

Today, disembark the ship in Cape Liberty, New Jersey for your onward journey, taking with you memories of a lifetime!