WWII D-DAY 80TH ANNIVERSARY TOUR!, LONDON, NORMANDY & PARIS ITINERARY:

Day 1

Welcome to London

Upon arrival at London Heathrow Airport, you will have a private transfer to your hotel. Later, join your Travel Director for a Welcome Drink. Continue to your dinner and wine at a local restaurant. You will then learn about the Ceremony of the Keys, carried out every night by the Beefeaters, without fail, for the past 700 years. The Yeoman Warder provides a history of the tradition and explains the etiquette of handling the keys before you are privy to witnessing this ancient gate-closing ritual (D)

The Clermont Victoria or similar – 2 nights

Day 2

London Sightseeing

Today you will visit the Royal Air Force Museum at Hendon. Explore the innovative galleries including the multi award-winning First World War in the Air Galleries, Historic Hangars and Bomber Command Hall. Later this afternoon, explore Winston Churchill's cabinet rooms. Dinner will be in the iconic Harmsworth room. The Harmsworth Room is packed full of history with an atmosphere of a wartime bunker yet has all the comforts of a modern venue. (B, D)

Day 3

London - Portsmouth

Today, travel to Portsmouth and visit the Southwick House to see its famous Map Wall. In 1944, the house became the headquarters of the allied commanders. Continue onto the D-Day Museum to see through personal accounts of people who were there and brought to life through stunning audio-visual presentations. (B) The Queens Hotel Portsmouth or similar – 1 night

Portsmouth - Caen - Normandy

Travel in the footsteps of the soldiers as you cross from Portsmouth into Caen, France by ferry. Continue to your hotel, perched on the historic coast where the D-Day landings took place. (B)

Novotel Caen Cote de Nacre or similar – 2 nights

Day 5

Normandy

Visit the Airborne Museum in Sainte- Mère-Église, one of the first towns liberated after D-Day. See the town church spire that American paratrooper John Steele got caught on before the Germans took him prisoner. Then explore the Dead Man's Corner Museum and experience the thrill of the StoyHoraC-47 simulation. Later, enjoy a delicious Farm-to-Table Dinner of traditional, regional cuisine at the L'Auberge des Monts. (B, D)

Day 6

Normandy Beaches - D-Day Landings & Paris

There are poignant reminders of World War II as you travel past Juno and Gold beaches, which both played a part in the 1944 Normandy landings. Visit the D-Day Museum and see the remnants of the artificial port in the bay of Arromanches. Then with a Local Expert, spend a few reflective moments and a wreath laying at the American Military Cemetery of Saint-Laurent near Omaha Beach before following the route of the Rangers and visiting the bunkers and the Rangers Memorial at Pointe du Hoc. Then, continue on to your hotel in Paris. Enjoy dinner tonight to relive the memories of this week. (B, D)

LeMeridien Etoile Paris or similar – 2 nights
